[] 37 CFR 1.98(c) When the disclosures of two or more patents or publications listed in an information disclosure statement are substantively cumulative, a copy of one of the patents or publication may be submitted without copies of the other patents or publications, provided that it is stated that these other patents or publications are cumulative. If listed below, the following references are being submitted under this provision where each of the references within the following groups of references is believed to be cumulative of the other reference(s) in said group:

The listed documents are brought to the Examiner's attention because they are known to the applicant and/or the applicant's attorney and may be considered by the Examiner to be material to his/her examination. This listing should not be construed as representation that a search has been made or that no better art exists. No inference should be made that the documents are in fact material merely because they are referenced herein. Moreover, no representation is made that any brief descriptions of the references herein necessarily describe the most material aspects of the references. Further, by this listing, the applicant is not making any admission regarding the relative dates of the invention and listed disclosures.

The Examiner is requested to consider carefully the complete text of these documents in connection with the examination of the above-identified application in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104(a). It is requested that the documents listed on the attached Form PTO-1449 be included in the "References Cited" portion of any patent issuing from this application (M.P.E.P. 1302.12), and that the Examiner initial and return a copy of the form to evidence consideration of the documents.

For the information of The Patent Office, please find further enclosed an EPO Communication (document "a") dated July 1, 2004 (one page) having a European Search Report (one page) and an Annex to the European Search Report (one page). The European Search Report cites the references listed on the PTO-1449.
